

The Wisconsin Do Not Call List should be a model for the entire nation. We as consumers pay to have telephone service for our convenience, not to be used as a sales tool by telemarketers. Prior to the list, there were evenings that we received up to 15 telemarketing calls.